

WITH MARINES

Pharmacist's Mate 2-c Edward T. Deedy, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Deedy of 12 Wabash avenue, who is serving with a Marine Corps unit in the Southwest Pacific. He received basic training at Newport, R. I., and pharmacy training at Norfolk, Va. He was stationed at Chelsea Naval Hospital until he was transferred to the Marines last Thanksgiving. He is the youngest staff non-commissioned officer in his division. Pharmacist's Mate Deedy entered the service after graduation from St. John's High School in June, 1943. He was Worcester Telegram correspondent at the school.