

OBITUARY

WIDOW OF EDGARTOWN
 July 11 (INS)—Mrs. Mary, widow of Justice of the Supreme court, her home here today, passed away in January.

Mrs. L. NALLY
 Madred L. Nally of 125 West Main street, who died Monday in hospital, was this day buried in St. Stephen's church, with a high mass at 9 o'clock.

J. BOLTON
 Patrick J. Bolton was buried in Callahan Brothers' funeral home, 37 Trumbull street. A high mass was celebrated at 9 o'clock in the Sacred Heart at 125 West Main street, George B. Healey, pastor, in charge of floral tributes.

EPHENE ALLEN
 (Larey) Allen, widow of R. Allen, 8 Lucian street, another son, Arthur, of Boston; two sisters, Lowell of Springfield Hillie of Arctic, R. I. home will be strictly private and friends are in the high mass of requiem church tomorrow at 9 o'clock. Burial will be in St. John's cemetery in charge of John J. Ma-

EXPERT JOINS STATE CRIME BOARD
 July 11 (INS)—An expert in law enforcement and an expert researcher today to help it determine lawlessness in the state is Prof. Sam B. Warren of the University.

BANK ROBBERY
 p. July 11 (INS)—A real estate dealer of his, a suburb, today and has been identified, as a member of such a year ago robbed bank, of 200,000 and 100,000.

Varnishes Stains
 New England's Recommended
 ig Bros.
 ed Paints

Mrs. ANNA E. PAULEY
 Mrs. Anna E. Pauley, widow of George J. Pauley, died last night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edna A. Scott, 51 Fountain street. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Edna A. Scott of Worcester, Mrs. Fred Lachapelle of Beverly, and Mrs. Richard Arnold of Somerville, N. J.; and a son, John G. Pauley of Leominster. The funeral will be from the home of Mrs. Scott, Saturday morning, with a high mass of requiem in St. Bernard's church, at 9 o'clock. Burial will be in St. John's cemetery.

FRANK SMOLINSKI
 The funeral of Frank Smolinski was held from the funeral parlors of Karolkevicz and Grabowski square, this morning, followed by a solemn high mass of requiem in St. Mary's church at 9 o'clock. Rev. B. Bojanowski was the officiant of the mass. The choir, under the direction of Joseph Golen, sang the Gregorian mass. At the close of the services solos were given by Mr. Golen. The bearers were: Jozef Jakubowski, Ignacy Tomaszewicz, Stanislaw Marczmarek and Edward Karol. Burial was in Notre Dame cemetery.

FORMER SHIPMATE OF KING GEORGE DIES
 BOSTON, Eng., July 11. (AP)—William King, shipmate of King George aboard the old warship Bacchante a half century ago, and a visitor at Craigwell House while the king was here in April, died today.

King was a boatswain on the Bacchante when His Majesty, then the Duke of York, was serving on the same ship. The one-time boatswain, whose home is here, took the opportunity of making a visit to Craigwell House on April 11 to have a chat concerning old times, King George being particularly interested in the Bacchante's logbook which the veteran sailor had brought with him.

MRS. HANNAH ROBINSON
 The funeral of Mrs. Hannah (Schollard) Robinson, wife of John Robinson, will be tomorrow morning from her home, 37 Cutler street. A high mass of requiem will be celebrated in St. Stephen's church at 9 o'clock. Burial, in charge of Callahan Brothers, will be in St. John's cemetery.

D. J. DEEDY DIES AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS
 D. Justin Deedy, for over 20 years employed in the composing room of The Worcester Telegram and The Evening Gazette, died this morning in his home, 12 Wabash avenue, after a brief illness. He was born in this city, the son of Edward B. and Hannah (Donovan) Deedy. He was a graduate of St. John's High school. He leaves, besides his parents, one brother, John G., and three sisters, Louise B., Elizabeth G. and Rita M. Deedy, all of Worcester. He was a member of Worcester Union, International Typographical Union.

The funeral will be held privately at the home Saturday morning. Relatives and friends are invited to call at the home tonight from 7 to 10 and tomorrow from 2 to 5 and 7 to 10. There will be a solemn high mass of requiem in the Church of the Ascension Saturday at 9 o'clock. Burial will be in St. John's cemetery.

HENRI PRESSAULT
 The funeral of Henri Pressault, who died Tuesday, will be held tomorrow from his mother's home, 81 Gates street, followed by a high mass of requiem in Holy Name of Jesus church at 9 o'clock. Burial will be in Notre Dame cemetery in charge of Felix A. Lajoie.

EXC
 Spend Su
 — Motor
 B
 Nat
 BOST

Your FULL MONEY'S

